Sit Kitty Sit's (SKS) new video "Purge" is the first official video independently produced by the band. This dark film noir captures the intense performance of the group. The song "Purge", is described by the band as: "The process of delving into ones own past in order to clean out old wounds which allows them to finally heal. Letting go, and moving on." The track is from SKS's first 2010 EP "The Push".

This video was shot at the amazing setting of the Monarch in San Francisco, CA. This venue provided an excellent backdrop for the band. Local SF filmmakers Sarah Dunham & Margrit Eichler shot and produced the video project.
